Claim 66 is objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c), as being of improper dependent form for failing to further limit the subject matter of a previous claim. Applicant is required to cancel the claim(s), or amend the claim(s) to place the claim(s) in proper dependent form, or rewrite the claim(s) in independent form. Claim 66 is a duplicate of claim 2.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-10, 12-16 and 66-68 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Vollkommer et al.

Vollkommer et al disclose bromine containing acrylate polymers and copolymers meeting the limitations of instant claims 1-8 and 12-16 (see column 3, line 66, column 4, lines 60-65, column 5, lines 4-8 and column 8, line 20). Applicants' recitation of specialty monomer in claims 9, 10, 67 and 68, without further definition of what this definition is to encompass, is not seen as distinguishing over the comonomers of the reference.

Claims 1, 3-10, 12-16 and 36-37 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by GB '750.

GB '750 disclose bromine containing acrylate polymers and copolymers meeting the limitations of instant claims 1, 3, 4, 6-8 and 12-16 (see abstract and page 2, lines 42-48). Applicants' recitation of specialty monomer in claims 9, 10, 67 and 68, without further definition of what this definition is to encompass, is not seen as distinguishing over the comonomers of the reference. The further incorporation of antimony oxide is taught at page 4, line 32.

Claims 11, 18, 19, 38-40 and 69 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 20-35 and 41-65 are allowed.
